

Dear IPA members

Invitation to the Ordinary General Assembly 2017

Further to my call on 30 May, I am honoured to open the IPA Ordinary General Assembly 2017 today and herewith invite you to our email meeting effective from 6 to 21 June.

The Six items for the Agenda and one Voting Form are now listed at the IPA website. In order to exercise voting rights as IPA Members, you may express your wishes on the form for the Agenda by selecting either Approve or Reject. Your vote can only count towards the resolution if the form is received no later than 12.00 noon on Wednesday 21 June in Japan time at the IPA Secretariat.

Your vote is very important for the management of the IPA. In case the total number of votes is less than a half of the whole membership, this General Assembly will not be effective. We hope you will participate in the voting to support and create successful future activities of the IPA.

The detailed procedure of voting is described on the next page.

Yours sincerely
Ph.D Osamu KUSAKABE
